honest right now? You don't need to share anything that feels too personal.

Getting to Know One Another

1. What's been going on for you this week?

d. The sermon proclaimed that "God meets us in our searching, not always with explanations, but with his presence." Have you experienced a time where God didn't give answers, but still felt present? What was that like? (from the GNP)

2. "What is the most beautiful thing you have ever seen?" [Thing, not a person 😊]

e. What is "bubbling up" for you when it comes to faith, even if you don't have words for it yet? (Hand motions welcomed here 😊)

Into the Sermon

1. In this passage, God reveals Jesus first to John, then to a few disciples and then to through them to others:

a. Can you think of someone who helped you "see" Jesus at some point in your life, someone who simply pointed rather than explained?

f. If God's revelation in Christ comes slowly and relationally... What does that free us from? And what does that invite us into?

b. Where in your life has understanding come gradually instead of all at once? And how has God been patient with you in that process?

One-Sentence Prayers

2. Do you have any prayer requests for one-sentence prayers?

c. When you hear Jesus asking, "what do you want/what are you seeking" what answer feels
